

Bride

COSMOPOLITAN

June/July 2008 £3.99

132
dresses
All styles, all budgets

20%
OFF at Dune®
with COSMOPOLITAN
UK ONLY

Chic ideas for wow receptions

10
Easy Moves to a hot bridal body

Your day, your way
How to have the wedding
you want

Real style Weddings to inspire you

White & hot
New big-day buys

Worldwide wed
Essential websites to bookmark now

Hen-night stress sorted

City slickers

Only a celeb haunt will do for your glittering reception and as far as post-'I do' partying goes, you're taking your lead from Kate Moss's infamous 34th-birthday bash. As for the honeymoon, why waste it relaxing? Nightlife, shopping, culture... you want it all. For luxury-loving urbanites, the world's your oyster - dress to impress, grab a guidebook and start citying pretty.

Drawstring and tassel tote bag, $35
Accessorize

Marrakech by night and, below, the Es Saadi Gardens and Resort

Polka-dot strapless prom dress with sash, £20, BonHoo.Com

Gold-framed sunglasses, £180, Marc Jacobs at Safflo

Gold cutwork sandals with lace detail, £35, Office

Short-haul hop: MARRAKESH

Morocco's second largest city might not be dripping with designer shops, but its vibrant bazaars with snake charmers and acrobats amaze and entertain. The architecture is equally spectacular and Es Saadi Gardens and Resort's striking oriental-style villas provide the perfect base. With a private pool, 24-hour butler service, spa, casino and nightclub, join Es Saadi's celeb following, which includes Leonardo DiCaprio and Matt Dillon (essaudi.com; £594 per villa per night, excl. flights). STAR ATTRACTION Hoogle for handbags at the Jeld souk and stock up on beauty products from the apothecary stalls at Rahba-Kedima.

Long-haul leap: TOKYO

Known for its exciting nightlife, Japan's capital also provides oases of calm, such the Imperial Palace's beautiful gardens, where you can recover from all that wedding planning. Shopaholics should go to Ginza for designer treats or stock up on the latest technology at Akihabara. Visits to a sumo tournament or Tokyo's DisneySea water park are perfect for two. Park Hyatt Tokyo offers a spa, indoor pool and stunning views from its jazz bar (tokyo.park.hyatt.com; from £250 per night). STAR ATTRACTION Head to Ueno Park, home to museums, galleries and the national zoo (with an adorable family of giant pandas).

The Park Hyatt Tokyo looks out over Tokyo, above

VOICES BY GENARA ASHAWA. PRICES CORRECT AT TIME OF PRESS AND SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY. FASHION ILLUSTRATED BY DAVID DUNN AND BELLA BROWN. BEAUTY COURTESY OF BIVIC BLACK.